Exploring and experiencing life in her fullness and richness.

Sexy, full of love and bliss.

Vision for a new way of living and creating

Christian Walker's vision for the Campus is a place surrounded by the beauty of nature.

Build with purely organic materials and shapes. Shapes that accelerate and multiply our creativity. A place built by enthusiastic people.

A place where you feel vibrantly alive. Living and working in inspiring spaces and buildings where you feel connected to your true self.

A place where you feel at home. A place where you feel seen and loved.

Enjoying raw, natural and self grown food. Waking up in the middle of nature. Listening to the birds. Showering in the rain.

Enjoying yourself by dancing in ecstasy, taking a shower under a waterfall, enjoying delicious food in the café or meditating in the sphere.

Sleeping in a bed made of pinus cembra, cocooned in fine linen, observing the cosmos and the stars through the roof top.

Unfolding your talents and growing with the support of others. Living an authentic, naked and honest life.

Co Creating with like minded artists stunning products for an inspiring world in evolution and future generations to come.

Treating yourself with ecstatic tantra massages in the most stunning Tantra temple or enjoying the bliss of Yoga in a stunning surrounding.

Want to feel vibrantly alive. Experiencing magic on a daily basis. Living an abundant lifestyle. Surrounded by stunning beauty. Exploring and unfolding your true potential and sharing your talents with the world.

Are you enthusiastic about life and the new world to come and want to shape a new way of living, creating and sharing.

Do you love beautiful design, nature and the cosmos? Are you curious about universal laws of nature and want to experience life at its fullest? Do you love working with natural materials and are interested in supporting us to manifest our vision?
